PRODUCT USE

Customer is solely responsible for determining if a product is fit for a particular purpose and suitable for customer's method of application. Accordingly, and due to the nature and manner of use of Magnaflux's products, to the extent permitted by applicable law Magnaflux is not responsible and shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever for the use or application of its products or the results obtained through the use of its products. Customer is responsible for the application of nondestructive testing methods to its parts. This responsibility includes, but is not limited to, the determination of appropriate products, testing methods and classification of parts. All physical properties, statements and recommendations are either based on the tests or experience that Magnaflux believes to be reliable, but they are not guaranteed.

OTHER TERMS

Magnaflux does not authorize any person or persons to create any other obligation or liability in connection with the products.

CUSTOMER SERVICE

Customers should contact Magnaflux Customer Service at 1-847-657-5300 or cs@magnaflux.com for assistance with any product defect or warranty claim issues. Customer must notify Magnaflux of any Warranty claim during the Warranty Period and provide a detailed explanation of any alleged deficiencies. No products may be returned until approved by Magnaflux.

FOR AUSTRALIAN CONSUMERS ONLY

Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

* This warranty applies to all consumable and accessory products manufactured by Magnaflux, a division of Illinois Tool Works Inc., 155 Harlem Ave, Glenview, IL 60025, USA.
